

Ana Cela Harris, Esq.

Member, Katz, Barron, Squitiero & Faust, P.A.

Ana Harris concentrates her law practice in commercial transactional matters, including corporate, tax, trust and estate planning. Ana's corporate and tax practice includes structuring all types of business entities, including limited liability companies, corporations, general and limited partnerships, and business trusts. She handles complex transactions including stock purchases and sales, asset acquisitions, joint ventures, partnership and stockholder relationships and agreements, incentive compensation plans, and management and employment agreements. Ana received both her undergraduate and law degrees from the University of Miami, and was admitted to the Florida Bar in 1987.

Understanding Legal Structures for Entrepreneurial Businesses

Selecting the right entity type and organizing it properly is a critical step for any entrepreneur. Implementing an improperly organized vehicle can prove costly. This lecture will discuss the various entity types available to new entrepreneurs, weigh the advantages and disadvantages of each entity-type, review the legal requirements for each structure, and help you identify the one which fits your needs.

You'll learn the differences between:

- S-Corporations
- C-Corporations
- Sole proprietorships
- Limited Liability Companies
- General Partnerships, and
- Limited Partnerships

Lecture will be held on Friday December 13, 2002 at 10:00 am in the Engineering Center
10555 West Flagler Street, Miami, FL 33174 Room 2300.
